

2011 State T-shirt Design Contest

Put your design skills to the test.

Enter the 2011 KSPA State T-shirt Design Contest for a chance to have your t-shirt sold at the 2011 State Contest on May 6 in Lawrence. Plus, the winner will receive a $50 check and his/her t-shirt for free.

Guidelines:

- Entries should include a front and back t-shirt design
- The front of the shirt should include "2011 KSPA State Journalism Contest"
- The back design should include each of the 20 contests offered at the state contest
- All entries should be submitted on a CD with the design as a digital file (.jpg or .tif)
- A note indicating T-shirt fabric color and two (2) ink colors should be included with entry
- Design can be a cartoon or graphic/typography design
- Illustrations, if used, should feature journalism and/or journalistic themes
- Entries may not use copyrighted images (unless copyrighted by the designer).
- You do not have to be a journalist to win; all high school student entries welcome!
- Limit three (3) entries per school.

Deadline:

March 9, 2012

All entries should be postmarked by this date.
